Dear Parents and Carers,

Exciting News! OFSTED Report Rates Our School as Outstanding in ALL areas!

We hope this letter finds you and your family in good health and high spirits. We are absolutely thrilled to share some exceptional news regarding our recent inspection by the Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (OFSTED). It is with immense pride and delight that we announce that our school has been awarded an "Outstanding" rating in our most recent OFSTED inspection!

This outstanding achievement is a testament to the dedication and hard work of our incredible pupils, highly skilled teachers, committed staff, dedicated governors and the unwavering support of our fantastic parent and parish community. The report commends our school for its excellent learning environment, ambitious curriculum, exceptional personal development, and high academic outcomes.

The inspection covered all aspects of school life, including the quality of education, leadership and management, Early Years provision, personal development, and behaviour and attitudes. The inspectors were deeply impressed with the exemplary behaviour and attitudes of our children, the excellent subject knowledge of our teachers and the rich and varied curriculum that enables every child to excel.

The report highlighted several key strengths of our school, including:

1. Children with exemplary behaviour and conduct who play well together, support one another and are highly motivated to learn.
2. Staff who are highly skilled and have excellent subject knowledge who plan interesting lessons that engage and motivate pupils.
3. Our outstanding Early Years, where children get off to a great start in reading, writing and maths, thanks to our highly skilled staff.
3. A positive and inclusive school culture that promotes the safety, well-being, self-esteem, and personal development of every child.
4. Strong and visionary leadership that does not tolerate poor behaviour, removes barriers to learning and fosters a culture of high expectations.
5. Exceptional provision for the students' personal development, helping them to understand and respect difference and understand the diverse society they live in.
6. Governors who work very well with senior leaders and effectively to hold the headteacher to account for the performance of the school.

We are immensely proud of these achievements and believe they reflect the collective efforts of our entire school community. We extend our heartfelt appreciation to our beautiful children for their hard work, enthusiasm, and dedication to learning; they are the reason we are here and they deserve the very best! We express our deepest gratitude to our teachers and staff for their tireless efforts in creating an exceptional learning experience for our children. We thank our governors, who give up their time so generously to help and support the school. Lastly, we would like to extend our sincere appreciation to you, our parents and carers, for your fantastic support and partnership in your child's education.

The "Outstanding" rating is a significant milestone for our school, but we remain committed to continuous improvement and ensuring the very best for our students. We will continue to build upon this success and strive for even higher standards. The full OFSTED report is attached for you to read and will also be available on our school website.

To celebrate this momentous achievement, we will be organising a special event for the children in the coming weeks. We will provide more details about the celebration soon.

Once again, congratulations to the entire school community for this remarkable achievement. Together, we have created an exceptional school where every child can thrive and reach their full potential. We are immensely proud of our school and the achievements of our pupils, and we thank you for being an integral part of our success.

Yours sincerely,
