

THE STRUCTURE OF A POEM JUST MEANS WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE ON THE PAGE – HOW IT IS SET OUT.

Structure can be created by using:

- Line length
- Verses
- Repetition
- Syllables
- Certain word types
- Specific words or phrases

Acrostic Poems

The structure of an acrostic poem is made by what the subject of the poem is.

The name of the subject is written down on the left-hand side of the page, one letter per line. Each line of the poem then starts with those letters:

An acrostic is a type of poem

Cool and fun to write

Really easy to do

One of a kind

Super

This is an acrostic!

It can be about anything

Come on, give it a try!
